Sub: Board exams amid World Cup Mania

Sir

Through the columns<sup>sp</sup> of your esteemed daily, I want to express my concern about the World Cup Cricket matches to be held in March, a time when children will have their board exams.

Board exam is a deciding factor for one's career<sup>sp</sup> and the matches are bound to distract the children's attention.

Yours truly

Aman Kumar

Story Writing: Sane Trees, Sane Lives

Mr. Shah lived in a posh residential complex. The complex had a huge tree at the centre of it. One day a builder decided to chop it off and build a swimming pool in its place.

Only Mr. Shah was not convinced because he was a great lover of trees and supported biological diversity. He was very attached to the tree for its branches reached his window and many a happy time he spent watching the creatures that resided on it. He prayed that something should happen to prevent it from being chopped off.

Just at the moment he heard a scream from his neighbour's daughter, Rita. He rushed to his window only to find her caught between the branches. Rita was soon rescued. She had slipped through the railing of her balcony. If it wasn't for the tree, she would have had a fatal fall.

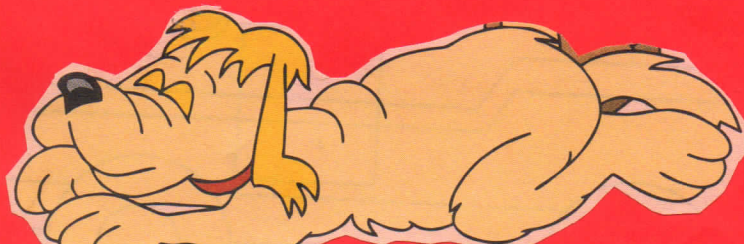

Rita's dad was the builder himself and decided not to chop off the tree anymore. Mr. Shah thanked God for this miracle and appealed to all sane trees as they sane lives.

EXIT CARD/ निकास का आकलन

अब कहाँ दूसरो के दुख से दुखी होने वाले

आज मैंने तीन बातें सीखी

1. धरती पर सभी जीव मिलजुलकर रहना चाहिए।
2. मनुष्य के समान पशु-पक्षी, नदी, पर्वत व सागर इन सभी का धरती पर समान रूप से हक होता है।
3. हमें स्वार्थी नहीं बनना चाहिए।

दो तरीके से मैं अपना योगदान दिया

1. अपने शब्दों के भण्डार को बढ़ाया
2. पाठ में आए नैतिक मूल्यों पर सहपठियों से चर्चा की

एक प्रश्न मेरे मन में आया

.क्यों मनुष्य स्वार्थी होते जा रहे हैं
